WE ARE

The CHE is designed to meet the needs of a world in transition. CHE puts in place the conditions to facilitate a breakthrough to the next level of living and working together. CHE consists of three intertwined 'circles':

- CHE Synnervate offers consultancy, project facilitation and organizational development from an integral perspective.
- The Center for Human Emergence is the central node which aligns all CHE activities.
- Read about our constellations. These are communities of practice, populated by inspired people that share a particular interest. They explore various aspects of what it means to work, contribute and develop from an integral perspective.
