WE ARE

The CHE is designed to meet the needs of a world in transition. CHE puts in place the conditions to facilitate a breakthrough to the next level of living and working together. Places where you can find out more:

- Read about our purpose, principles and activities on www.humanemergence.nl.
- CHE NL has organized all education, development, training and coaching within the School of Synnervation. See www.schoolofsynnervation.nl.
- Read about our constellations. These are communities of practice, populated by inspired people that share a particular interest. They explore various aspects of what it means to work, contribute and develop from an integral perspective.
- We recommend: The State of the World Forum 2009, November 12-14, Washington D.C., U.S.A., where conversations that matter are transformed into action that make a difference. The CHE engagement with the State of the World Forum is evolving rapidly through our Hague Center for Global Governance, Innovation and Emergence. Read more...
- We recommend: "Integral Life and Leadership for Sustainable Evolution", 4 -9 August, by the Experience Integral Foundation, for people aged 18 - 38.
- We recommend: "Integral City: Evolutionary intelligences for the human Hive", a workshop by Marilyn Hamilton, June 29, Amsterdam.

CONTRIBUTE

Donations

Thanks to periodic donations, the people of CHE NL can be significantly more effective. This includes our partner role in the Meshwork for Mother Care, our role as Sparring partner of the World Health Organisation (WHO); and the creation of the new The Hague Center for Global Governance, innovation and emergence.

You may credit bank account nr: 21.24.79.172 of the Stichting Center for Human Emergence in The Hague. CHE NL has been officially recognized as a charitable purpose, which is tax-friendly.

A heartfelt thank-you on behalf of the CHE organization
