WE DO

Meshwork Design event report of March 2010

At the end of March about 35 people gathered from the Netherlands and other countries to explore our latest experiences and understandings of how to create large-scale systemic change. The approach we have for that is what we call Meshworking™. The event generated new insights that are allowing us to formulate the key principles and practices of meshworking, so that we can communicate it more effectively to others and provide support for others to learn about and develop their meshworking™ practice. ### New Synnervator: Gaston Remmers

We welcome Gaston Remmers as new synnervator in the Synnervation circle. Gaston joined us in 2010 and contributes his expertise and qualities in the area of evolutionary area development. Please meet Gaston and the other synnervators on our website: We Are > People.

At the same time we thank Dylan Newcomb for our collaboration and his passionate contribution as synnervator throughout the past year. Because Dylan is moving to New York, he will not be continuing his "Synnervatorship".

CHE recommends: Four Years. Go. Campaign

"Four Years. Go." is a global communication and awareness campaign to engage thousands of organizations and millions of individuals on a four year journey to create a better world. It is a campaign to bring forth and unite a worldwide surge of energy, enthusiasm and action to shift humanity to a sustainable, just and fulfilling trajectory by February 14, 2014. To become an ally, go to the Four Years.Go. website <http://signup.fouryearsgo.org/> and sign up your organization.

CHE NL celebrates 5th anniversary

On April 20th 2005, the CHE NL was founded to “become a catalyzer and crystallizer of action for the planetary transformation into integral evolutionary consciousness”. Five years later, we’re increasingly manifesting just that. We celebrated our 5th anniversary on April 23th at The Hub in Amsterdam.

WE ARE

The CHE is designed to meet the needs of a world in transition. CHE puts in place the conditions to facilitate a breakthrough to the next level of living and working together. Places where you can find out more:

- CHE NL has organized all education, development, training and coaching within the CHE School of Synnevation. See the dedicated website www.schoolofsynnevation.nl.

Did you know that the CHE NL Wisdom council includes Herman Wijffels, Carlos de Bourbon-Parme, Fons Trompenaars, and Fred Matser a.o.? The CHE NL Wisdom Council provides valuable insights on the strategic direction and priorities of CHE NL. See the entire Council.

Salons

Get to know CHE by visiting one of our salons at Venwoude. Collectively we explore a range of innovative topics, amongst which are the value systems of Spiral Dynamics. To attend, send an e-mail to salons@humanemergence.nl. For other questions, or to subscribe, send an e-mail to info@humanemergence.nl.

CONTRIBUTE

Donations

Thanks to periodic donations, the people of CHE NL can be significantly more effective. This includes our partner role in the Meshwork for Mother Care, our role as Sparring partner of the World Health Organisation (WHO); and the creation of the new The Hague Center for Global Governance, innovation and emergence.

You may credit bank account nr: 21.24.79.172 of the Stichting Center for Human Emergence in The Hague. CHE NL has been officially recognized as a charitable purpose, which is tax-friendly.

A heartfelt thank-you on behalf of the CHE organization and all its contributors and synnevatons!
